Professional and Community Activities

Coaching is Matthew's passion. His unique ability is to help people get unstuck in three of the most complicated relationships in life; money, people, and self. Matthew currently volunteers in his community to respond to and help people in crisis. Matthew also volunteers his time to conduct leadership workshops for the staff of local non-profits such as the Rocklin Chamber of Commerce and Stand-Up Placer, which serves women and children escaping domestic violence and sex trafficking.

Matthew has written and published two non-fiction books, Take It Off in 2015, and Financial Sobriety: Rebuilding Your Relationship with Money One Step at a Time in 2019. He also co-hosts a bi-weekly podcast, also called Financial Sobriety. In November 2021, he was invited to speak on the topic of Financial Sobriety at a local TEDx event which is now available for world-wide viewing on the official TED YouTube channel. Matthew has written many articles and blog posts and been interviewed for personal finance columns covered by Yahoo Finance, GoBankingRates.com, and Forbes, as well as conducted live interviews on several podcasts and national radio broadcasts, such as the Why I Network, WealthManagement.com, and iHeart Radio's KFBK Sacramento.

Matthew is also an avid outdoorsman and traveler. He and his wife, Amie, are the proud parents of two boys, Miles and Lucas.
